

PROFILE – Tracy McGee-Jaeger, MA, LLP

Tracy McGee-Jaeger is a Limited Licensed Psychologist and is a clinical therapist for West Michigan Addiction Consultants, PC (WeMAC). She holds a graduate degree in Counseling Education and Psychology and a SPADA certification (Speciality in Alcohol and Drug Addiction) from Western Michigan University.

Tracy's expertise has been utilized in an array of settings including emergency departments, hospital general medical floors, inpatient psychiatric units, detoxification units, dual-diagnosis intensive outpatient programs, and outpatient offices. Outside clinical practice, she teaches introductory psychology to first-year college students.

Tracy has facilitated weekly ongoing care groups for WeMAC since August 2002. In April, 2004 she joined the staff as a full-time therapist. She facilitates women's group therapy, group therapy, parenting classes, provides individual therapy and participates in the lecture series.